Relentless prayers

Are you reluctant to bring the same prayers to your heavenly Father over and over? Maybe you don't want to trouble God; after all, he already knows what you're going to say. Plus, you're not worthy to ask for anything!

If those thoughts surround you, think about Patrick, Ireland's patron saint. At 16, he was dragged from his home to be a slave. Patrick tended sheep in the cold. Hungry and miserable, he begged God for mercy and deliverance.

In his Confessio, Patrick recalls praying "a hundred times in the day and almost as many at night." Without ceasing, he told God of his needs, wants, thanksgiving and confession. And God heard his prayers.

Pray relentlessly. God is always listening!

Giving up guilt

Rev. Greg Boyle, a Jesuit priest who ministers to high-risk youth in Los Angeles, once quipped, "I ... don't do guilt. I gave it up for Lent years ago." Many Christians give up something for Lent but usually not guilt! Rather, Lent is seen as a time to somberly examine our sinful nature.

March 2017 Volume 8, Issue 3

Having witnessed sin's tragic effects through addiction, violence and gang warfare, Father Boyle realizes that dwelling on guilt doesn't lead to hope or healing. Instead, he helps young people discover their God-given strengths and their ability to make life-affirming choices. His nonprofit Homeboy Industries provides positive alternatives for teenagers, who are reminded not of their guilt but of their identity as God's beloved children.

On Good Friday Jesus conquered sin and death so we don't have to wallow in guilt. Giving our lives to God frees us to live in the joy of forgiveness.

WARDEN'S WORDS One of my inspirations during the season of Epiphany came from a quilt pattern called "Hand" illustrated in a book named The Bible Sampler Quilt by Laurie Aaron Hird. The theme is taken from Mark 1:9-15 and as you recall it depicts, Jesus' baptism in the Jordan River. God reveals his immense pleasure and the glory bestowed on his son by speaking from heaven and saying, "You are my beloved Son, in you I am well pleased". As the scripture goes, Jesus is baptized by John the Baptist and after John is imprisoned, Jesus begins his ministry. He began preaching the gospel of God, and saying, "The kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel". What is at hand? The kingdom of God is at hand. So when I reflect on what this means to me personally, in God's kingdom, we are loved and valued. We have joy and peace. Not the peace that the world gives, but the peace that can only come from God. In God's kingdom we are comforted and blessed. In God's kingdom, Jesus is Lord and we have rest! So as we are inspired and enlightened throughout this season and the seasons that follow, let us see, and know the Lord has manifested forth his glory: O come let us adore him.

ONE TO ONE CLOTHES CLOSET BY JOANNE EARLEY

2016 was a good year for the Share-One-to-One Ministry (Clothes Closet). We are very blessed with donations from the community. We still accept anything and everything except large furniture and large appliances. Bedding, linens, personal hygiene items, cleaning supplies, books, especially children's, are examples of things we don't receive very often, but go quickly when we do.

Bradley Alexander and Nigel Gunn are the other members of the parish who weekly work at the Clothes Closet. Besides the three of us we have at least an additional 6 faithful volunteers. Doug Pultz's family once again were very generous with their Christmas donations of assorted items for our families. Poor Becky Gentry deals with the community almost on a daily basis multiple times a day sometimes accepting donations. Thank you Brad, Nigel and Becky.

Bradley does a weekly calculation of the number of clients we serve. His grand total for the 2016 year was 6798 people. Actual people who came into the closet were 3147. Weather permitting, Cheryl Allen puts racks of clothes outside in the yard on Tuesday morning. That really draws attention to the clothes closet. I am certain several folks took advantage of our giveaway outdoors without coming inside to sign our book.

Bible Baptist Church on W. Second Street, Xenia and IHN on S. Detroit St., Xenia were both weekly contributors to the closet. We are thankful for them dropping off their donations.

A group of Cedarville University young men donated $65 to the clothes closet. I was able to purchase 20 pairs of men's socks, 20 pairs of ladies' socks, 10 deodorants, 10 (12 ounce) body washes and 10 (12.5 ounce) shampoos with their donation.

Every week clients tell us how thankful they are for the clothes closet and how we have helped them get clothes for job interviews, clothes for work, clothes for their children and their grandchildren as well as for themselves. They tell us what a blessing we are and have been for them. They don't know what they would have done without our help. Cheryl Allen also takes things to the Beavercreek/Dayton area for the refugees.

Our hours for the clients are still 10 to 2 on Tuesdays, weather permitting. If Xenia Community Schools are closed due to inclement weather, we are closed also.

Clothing Closet

We are grateful to this congregation for providing us with a place to house the Clothes Closet. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP BY BECKY GENTRY Money Talk

Jesus talked a lot about money ; why do we Episcopalians find it so difficult? As tax time fast approaches, we think of money owed or being refunded. We seem to be able to talk about the economy of our nation, the Church, or even about personal financial situations. But why do we find it so difficult to talk to each other and with new members of the congregation about giving and tithing? What is it that makes this subject so difficult to discuss, or even mention? When we receive new members, we tell them about the Church, our goals, meetings, and ministries, etc. All this is important, but we should also talk about pledging and tithing.

Many organizations tell their new members what their responsibilities are and how much membership will cost. Should we be any different? Is the Church failing its new members by not teaching what the responsibilities, as well as the blessings, are? How will the congregation know if we don't tell them or stress the importance of giving? Jesus talked about money often, why not follow his example in our steward-ship teaching!

SUNDAY SUPPER (AKA COMMUNITY DINNER) BY BEV KROUSKOP

We held our latest Sunday Supper on Feb. 19. We served a meal of Chicken & Noodles, Mashed Potatoes, Green Beans, Rolls, Fresh Fruit, and Jell-O with Fruit to 25 guests. We also served fruit salad and pastries left from our annual meeting. (The fruit salad proved to be a special treat for them and something they probably don't get often!) With second helpings, carry-out meals, and staff we served a total of 50 meals and could have served another 10 or 12.

We had a great group of volunteers: Cynda, Nigel, Jean Stetzler, Jonathan, Karen Ingraham, Father Elaine, Bradley, Jim Goins, Claris, Glen, and Tim all pitched in. (Thanks to all for helping me make this happen!)

As you can see, I have changed from Community Dinners to Sunday Suppers, hoping to make it sound more informal and inviting. Bradley and others are distributing a large number of flyers each month to advertise the meal and hopefully improve attendance.

A couple of good suggestions were discussed at the meal. One was to put flyers on the tables with dates of future meals, for attendees to take with them. The other was to take monthly flyers to the Board of Education for distribution to the homeless teen community. Please email me with any suggestions you may have for how we can improve our process for this ministry and make it more effective. All ideas and/or recommendations are welcome and appreciated!

Sunday Supper

Please volunteer to help with a future meal so we can keep this ministry going strong!

submissions is March 20. Submit information by hand to Tanya or by emailing it to cecxtanya@gmail.com.

A LETTER FOR THE PASSPORT TO FISHING PROJECT BY CYNDAMARIE GUNN

RE: Fishing Camp in Xenia Ohio

To whom it may concern,

My name is Cyndamarie Gunn. I am requesting for assistance in obtaining a grant from the Ohio Division of Wildlife, in order to do a community event. This grant is called "Passport to Fishing" The proposed idea of this project is to :

- Teach the youth about fishing
- · Teach fundamentals of fishing, such as the following
- Tying a swivel to line
- How to place a hook
- Where to place a sinker and why and when to use different weight sinkers
- How to tie and place a bobber
- How to safely cast a line
- How to untangle a line
- Respecting the wild life at the parks
- Respecting other people's fishing gear
- The importance of keeping the park clean of trash and litter.

I fish at Shawnee Park nearly every day. There are many children who cannot afford fishing poles, tackle, or bait. These youth have nothing better to do, than to get into trouble and annoy the ducks and geese.

I see it as a community need, to get these kids active in something. After spending nearly 2 full summers at the park, I have observed the real need to show youth how to fish. I have had the privilege to also mentor some of these youth as just someone they can talk to. They are not bad children; they just have no one to spend time with.

Here's a little story. A couple years ago, there were a few youths in the park causing a major disturbance. After many adults had asked the youths to simmer down, one teenager got rather verbally abusive. I got up and walked over to the teen. After having a bit of a stern chat with the teen, the teen ran to get their parents/ guardian. At which time, said person came to me, and explained that teen had a hard road to haul right now and gave me their number. The adult told me if any more problems arose, I should call their guardian and thanked me for caring. Fast forward 1 year, the teen was now a bit older and I did not recognize her. She came past me at the park and asked me if it was OK to sit and talk. I responded yes. She then went on to tell me that she was the youth that I had approached a few years prior and that she had just graduated from Xenia High School with honors. She wanted to thank me for caring. This made me feel great, and that ladies and gentlemen, is when this idea was born. You never know how exactly you can mentor to a youth, but is it not important to mentor to youth in a hobby you love?

My father once said to me, "Teach a person to fish, they will have a hobby. Teach a person to catch a fish, they will eat for a lifetime."

I have to have an organization behind me to apply for this grant, but I would like to involve other organizations. BRACA does a fishing derby every June, has a list of sponsors, and may be able to advise. This group may be able to get this grant and assist me in leadership.

Christ Episcopal Church Xenia, for youth mentoring.

I need guidance and community to assistance to take this project on; this is a true need in this area.

> Thank you for your time, Cyndamarie Gunn 1865 El Camino Erive, Xenia Ohio 45385-1115
