Curing vs. healing

In We Know How This Ends (Univ. of Minnesota Press), Bruce Kramer writes about “living while dying” from Lou Gehrig’s disease. While not denying his impending death, Kramer focuses on getting as much out of life as possible. Part of that involves the following distinction:

“Know the difference between curing and healing,” he writes. “Curing implies that things will be brought back to the way they were. ... Expecting a cure will only result in frustration and disappointment. But healing can take place.”

In Scripture, curing and healing are generally used interchangeably, yet one can happen without the other. We know people with disease or disability whose spirits are vibrant and faithful. Though they haven’t been cured, their lives are marked by God’s healing touch. Even in the Gospels, Jesus’ curing of ailments was often a sign of his greater healing: sins forgiven, community restored, faith embraced.

For what have you prayed for a cure? Might healing be the greater need?

Christ risen and realized

Author George Thompson tells of a Jewish rabbi’s appeal to Christians during the tumultuous 1930s. On Easter Eve, the rabbi wrote in a newspaper: “I challenge the Christian world to measure itself by the standards of Christ. As long as any group is judged by its creed or color or country in place of its character, Christianity is a sacrilege rather than sanctity. To this end, I summon Christians everywhere to make this Easter to signify Christ realized and not merely Christ risen.”

WARDEN'S WORDS

Joyful Easter Season to you and to those whom you love! Easter season represents a time in the liturgical year of anticipation, celebration, and rejoicing. It is a time when we can focus and reflect on the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We reflect on God's great love for us and his miraculous power in resurrecting his son from the dead. This resurrection power that raised Jesus from the dead is the same power that provides us with the life that we live in Christ. It provides us with hope, joy, and peace. It provides the impetus for holy living and a blessed assurance that there, too will be a resurrection of our bodies. We wait patiently for this hope that will be revealed in us. While watching, waiting, and working, let us remember the words of the Apostle Paul to the church at Corinth—But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

NEWS FROM THE MINISTRIES

STEWARDSHIP BY BECKY GENTRY

You've heard the phrase: "Spring is just around the corner" or "April showers bring May flowers."

Well, April is upon us, that's true. We need to be proactive in loving and respecting all God's creations, but where to start? The task is so large!

Some suggestions:

1. Look around our Church property and Parish House— there are several areas that need our help: cleaning-up, raking, cutting, and planting. Just ask Jim and Joyce Goins! I've seen them cleaning up the Arbor yard and trimming the plants back. Thanks for your help!
2. Constantly check for debris in the yards. People throw "stuff" there and "stuff" blows in on the windy days. Please stop and pick it up.
3. See any dead trees or shrubs? Ask the Building and Grounds Team about planting new ones. Jim Goins is the Team Leader.
4. Any ideas for yard decorations? Bring them to the B&G Team or the Vestry. We'd love to hear them.

For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life. —Ephesians 2:10

A LETTER FOR THE PARISH BY JACK KITCH

To members of Christ Church--

I thank you all for the privilege of worshiping with you the past several years; your love and affection have meant a great deal to me and my family, and I miss you all very much. I am now comfortably living in Kirkland Village, a Presbyterian retirement home in Bethlehem, PA close to my daughter Anne and her family, who have all assumed caretaker duties for the old man, for son David is in CA and son Bill in TX (They both are very good about staying in touch via phone and EMail and mush out for a visit as often as feasible; I am most blessed with my children.)

My health has not been very good lately. I was in hospital for several days with a severe lung infection and am just starting to recover; I have discovered what being 83 means . . . . My cane and walker move me about fairly well, and a wheel chair does the trick for infrequent outside excursions like getting to services at Nativity Cathedral, which I make regularly thanks to Anne. My doctors, of which I have more than any human needs, tell me not to expect my health to improve; I just smile and say I'll wait for real healing in the next life, a view that perplexes some of them. I remain in good spirits and am more than content to enjoy the time I have left. The parish office has my current contact information. I especially thank all of you who have sent notes and cards--your thoughtfulness means much to me.

Thanks for the memories. I pray you will continue manifesting for all what it means to be true children of God and trust the Lord will remain with you.

Shalom,
Jack Kitch

JESUS IS RISEN!

When Jesus' disciples saw that the stone was rolled away from his tomb, they knew he had risen. Make a moveable tomb to celebrate Easter.

What you need:

- 4 pieces of paper (brown, blue, black, yellow)
- Scissors
- Pencil
- Glue stick
- Brad fastener
- Marker

What you do:

1. Fold the brown paper in half, short side to short side. Cut along the fold. On one half, draw and cut out a large half-circle (the tomb). On the other, draw and cut out a palm-sized circle (the stone).
2. Glue the brown tomb onto the blue paper.
3. Cut a black circle (the inside of the tomb) the same size as the brown stone and glue it onto the brown tomb.
4. Place the brown stone over the black half-circle; this is the entrance. Push the brad through one edge so the stone can move from side to side.
5. Cut out a cross from the yellow paper and glue it by the tomb.
6. Write "Jesus is risen!" atop the blue paper.
