CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH XENIA

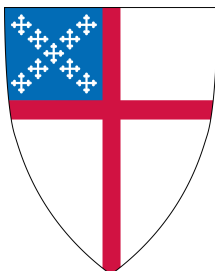

NewsNote Vol. 2, No. 42
Sunday After Pentecost
Proper 19

Welcome!

Celebrant and Preacher: Rev. Dr. Jennifer Oldstone-Moore

We WILL stream to Facebook this week

Link to Facebook page

We are in, as I suggested in Sunday's sermon, the Summer of Bread, and we're not quite out yet. The lessons that are assigned for Proper 19 (the official name for this Sunday in the church calendar) have a second Feeding of the Thousands event, but with a difference: this one is performed for Gentiles. In the Gospel reading for Proper 19, Mark 8:27-38, Jesus and his disciples are in the Decapolis, a Roman area. Here, Jesus demonstrates the widening of his mission beyond the Jewish people to include all persons, including Gentiles with bread enough for all (and leftovers) that begins with seven loaves of bread and two fish.

There is a parallel in the history of the Episcopal and Anglican churches when it comes to the challenges faced by Black followers of Jesus as they strove to become congregants and clergy. In addition to another miracle in the Gospels, this Sunday is set aside to honor one such brother in Christ, Alexander Crummell, a man with great influence in shaping our church who showed courage and strength of spirit as he faced rejection, insult, and disappointment as he followed the call of God. Like the Syro-Phoenician woman in the Gospel passage from last Sunday, Crummell wouldn't take no for an answer and kept persevering. We will be reading the lectionary dedicated to Crummell (below). You can still catch the Gospel of Proper 19, aka the Last Sunday of the Summer of Bread, by clicking on our devotional by Suzanne Guthrie which is, as always, at the bottom of the newsletter.

May you be bold and brave this week as you follow the Way of Love and listen for God's call—

Rev. Jen+

NEW Parish Office Emails

We need to split up the main email (ChristEpiscopalXenia@gmail.com). Please update the emails in your computer for Rev. Jen, Becky or Nikki.

Rev. "MVP" Jen - CECX.Priest@gmail.com

Bookkeeper "Most Rushing Yards" Becky - CECX.Bookkeeper@gmail.com

Parish Administrator "Flag on Play" Nikki - CECX.Office@gmail.com

New Healing Service

We will begin a midweek service on most first, second, and third Wednesdays. This will be a liturgy for healing and communion.

The next service is September 8th at 11:00 am in the sanctuary.

As we learn what times are best for those who wish to attend, we may adjust the time for this service--do read your newsletter.

In order to protect the ill and those who care for them, masks will be worn over nose and mouth by all at this service, regardless of vaccine status.

Proclaiming the Dream: Diocesan Convocation

Saturday, September 25 ~ 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. ~ Procter Center

Two Fun Ways to Support ECM

As the outreach arm of the diocese, Episcopal Community Ministries uses the power of our collective community to help fund local outreach ministries who are in the best position to assess and respond to neighborhood needs.

"Bake" a difference and enter your sweet treats in the ECM Bake-Off!

Saturday, September 25, 2021 ~ Procter Center ~ part of the DSO Convocation

The Bake-Off will have three entry categories:

- Cookies & Bars
- Pies
- Cakes & Cupcakes

Drop off your culinary creation at the ECM tent at Convocation by 10:30 a.m. on Sept. 25. At 11 a.m., ECM Committee members will judge the samples and declare the "Best Of" for each category.

Beginning at 11:30 a.m. all entries will be sold by the slice or piece, so that all convocation attendees can enjoy your splendid sweets. Proceeds will go to ECM to fund local congregational outreach ministries. We know your goodies are made with love, and what could be more appropriate than supporting the love shown by neighbors helping neighbors?

Requirements:

- All entries must be home-made.
- All entries must be made with love.
- A list of ingredients must be submitted to aowens@diosohio.org by 9/23 so a card can be printed for each entry. This is essential information at the Bake Sale for people who may have food allergies.

Are you willing to share your recipe? If so, email your recipe to aowens@diosohio.org by 9/23 and we will also sell recipes at the bake sale to raise additional funds for ECM.

OSU Football Ticket Raffle

Each $25 donation to ECM enters you for a chance to win two tickets to see the Buckeyes take on the Maryland Terrapins on Saturday, October 9 at Ohio Stadium in Columbus.

These are exceptional tickets! They're in Section 18A, Row 34!

You can enter for multiple raffle tickets – $25 for 1; $50 for 2, $75 for 3, $100 for 4.

Bishop Smith will draw the winning raffle ticket on Wednesday, 9/29. The winner will be notified by email with instructions on how to claim their tickets.

You Oughta Be in Pictures!

We need your help to take pictures of our church, parish hall, and people! We will use them to not only update our website but also to have for other needs as they arise. Once you have pictures, you can contact Nikki via phone or email and she can help you get the pictures to the office once she knows the details of the camera you are using. Please take pictures whenever the opportunity presents itself - or when the mood strikes you!

Prayers for your daily devotions:

Spare Calendars

Do you have any 2022 calendars that you won't use? Brad needs them! Please bring them by the office or the church whenever is convenient.

Free Classes From the Learning Portal

Click on the title of the class for more information and to take any or all of these courses at any time that's convenient for you.

Holy Hardware

Learn about the architecture, furnishings, and beliefs that make up Christian worship. Priest and liturgist Deon Johnson unpacks the theology and meaning behind some of the more common elements of 'holy hardware.'

Contemplative Knitting

Learn how connecting a creative passion, such as knitting, to a contemplative prayer practice can change the consistency with which you pray, thereby deepening your relationship with God and helping you to serve others.

The Bible and Evangelism

Evangelism, intentionally sharing our Christian faith through word and deed, is being centered in the Jesus Movement and its important for us to search the immense resources of scripture in order to inform and empower our work and mission. In this course, Learn how to share the good news of Jesus Christ with others.

Responding to Refugees

Learn about refugees, resettlement, and how Christians might consider, and relieve, their plight in the course Responding to Refugees. Allison Duvall, from Episcopal Migration Ministries invites us to understand and come alongside those whom the Bible asks us to care for.

Weekly Devotional

Our weekly devotional comes from Suzanne Guthrie's "At the Edge of the Enclosure: Soul Work for Sunday." This is a lovely devotional that takes a spiritual pilgrimage each week with reflection, prayer, art, poetry, and commentary on the scriptures. There are links to other resources; Rev. Jen loves the Visual Commentary on Scripture Edge of the Enclosure

There is a tab on the main page that will take you to the scripture readings for the week.

NEED IN OUR COMMUNITY

Christ Church Clothes Etc. Outreach:

We are starting a special area to collect clothes for children in foster care! Please spread the word and donate as able.

We especially need winter coats for children!

We need volunteers to help with our Community Closet!***

Do you have a little spare time? Want to help our community? Would you like to spend time with other people doing the same? Even if you just have an hour or two, please give the office a call and we'll figure out a time that works. This includes people who might like to come in when the office only has one or two people in it.

We need clothes for our community! While we gladly accept all clothing in good condition, we especially need items for school-aged kiddos, teens, and men. Hygiene items are always in great need. Contact the office for details.

...I know that I have life only insofar as I have love.

I have no love
except it come from Thee.

Help me, please, to carry
this candle against the wind.
